

Why Vote REPUBLICAN?

When laws are made at the federal level we are likely to get a one-size-fits-all approach that often isn't the best solution for everyone in our vast and diverse nation. Some matters are best served at the federal level as addressed in our Constitution, such as the protection of the lives of our citizens, the right to bear arms, our national defense and trade between nations; but other things need local control to allow for the greatest liberty and sound judgment. Additionally, we are better served by officials elected by the people than by non-elected bureaucrats.

THIS IS THE REPUBLICAN MESSAGE: GOVERNMENT IS BEST WHEN SERVING AT THE LOCAL LEVEL.
